

North Carolina, Triangle Chapter

December 2011 Social Member Meeting

Featuring "The Benefits of Personal Brand Management"

Please join us for an important year-end social and member meeting to discuss the future of SWEP!

We will also host a special presentation on the benefits of personal brand management by Wanda Harris Pemberton, Founder and CEO of Sirrah Coaching and Consulting. Ms. Pemberton is a certified Personal Branding consultant, Motivational Speaker, Certified Job and Career Transition Coach, Certified Image Consultant, and Certified Life Coach. She will share with us some career management tips and strategies, with an emphasis on social marketing and actions we can take that are within our control - including how we present ourselves, how we respond, and how we can connect with others more effectively.
